

Forget-me-Not Notes App Terms and Conditions

Effective Date: July 7, 2026

1. Acceptance of Terms

By downloading, installing, or using Forget-me-Not Notes App ("the App"), you agree to these Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree with these Terms, please do not use the App.

2. Description of the App

Forget-me-Not Notes App is a personal productivity application that allows users to create, organize, and manage reminders and tasks, or short notes through reminders. Optional cosmetic themes and skins are available through in-app purchases. The App may also offer optional backup and restore functionality using your Google Drive account.

3. License

The developer grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to use the App for your personal, non-commercial use.

You may not:

- Copy or redistribute the App except as permitted by applicable law.
- Reverse engineer, decompile, or attempt to extract the source code except where permitted by law.
- Use the App in any way that interferes with its intended operation.

4. In-App Purchases

The App offers optional cosmetic purchases, including themes and skins.

These purchases:

- Are entirely optional.
- Do not affect the App's core functionality.
- Are processed securely through Google Play Billing.

Pricing, payment processing, refunds, and subscription policies (if introduced in the future) are governed by Google Play.

5. Google Drive Backup

The App may allow you to back up and restore your notes, reminders, settings, and other App data using your own Google Drive account.

Use of this feature is optional.

Backup data remains stored in your Google account. The developer does not have access to your Google Drive or your backup files.

Although every effort is made to provide reliable backup and restore functionality, the developer cannot guarantee that data will never be lost, corrupted, or become unavailable. Users are responsible for maintaining any backups they consider important.

6. Your Responsibilities

You are responsible for:

- The information you choose to store in the App.
- Maintaining access to your Google account if you use Google Drive backup.
- Keeping your device secure.

You should avoid storing information that could put your privacy or security at risk if your device or Google account is compromised.

7. Ownership

Forget-me-Not Notes App, including its software, design, graphics, icons, themes, and other content, is owned by the developer and is protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Purchasing themes or skins grants you a license to use them within the App. Ownership of the underlying intellectual property remains with the developer.

8. Privacy

The developer does not collect or store your personal information.

If you choose to use Google Drive backup, your data remains stored within your own Google account.

For additional information, please review the App's Privacy Policy.

9. Updates

The developer may release updates that include bug fixes, performance improvements, compatibility updates, or new features.

Installation of updates may be necessary to ensure continued compatibility with Android or Google services.

10. Disclaimer

The App is provided "as is" and "as available" without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied.

While reasonable efforts are made to provide a reliable experience, the developer does not guarantee that the App will be uninterrupted, error-free, or suitable for every purpose.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the developer is not liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or special damages arising from the use of the App.

This includes, but is not limited to:

- Loss of notes or reminders
- Lost or corrupted backup data
- Missed reminders or notifications
- Device malfunctions
- Service interruptions
- Loss of profits or business opportunities

Users are encouraged to maintain separate copies of any information that is important to them.

12. Third-Party Services

The App uses Google services to provide certain features, including:

- Google Play Billing
- Google Play Services
- Google Identity (if used for Google account authorization)
- Google Drive API

These services are provided by Google and are governed by Google's own terms and privacy policies.

13. Changes to These Terms

These Terms and Conditions may be updated from time to time.

The updated version will become effective when published with the App or on the App's Google Play listing. Continued use of the App after changes are published constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms.

14. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the Province of British Columbia and the applicable federal laws of Canada.

Any disputes arising from these Terms shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of British Columbia, unless otherwise required by applicable law.

15. Contact

If you have any questions about these Terms and Conditions, please contact the developer using the contact information provided on the Google Play Store listing.
